Lansburgh & Bro §

WHICH SHALL IT BE?

The one with Sprays or the one with Figures, You Could hardly pass one of these Beautiful dreamlike Organdies at the price just placed on them. For from now on take your pick of any of our French Organdies for 25c. yd.

Prominent Society People.

Mrs. Lamont after her Western trip with mer have undergone numerous change one the early spring, when they first began be formulated. At that time she had erery expectation of going abroad with her liveryoning daughters, and after placing the oblices at school in Paris, of spending the Continent.

mainder of the summer traveling on the spracticable, on account of some urgent ofhead matters that demanded the close atame throughout the sammer. It was,

As the Secretary's family is very fond of create, and to enjoy to the atmost the as at once settled upon when the Euro-pean trip had to be abandoned. Mrs. La end, therefore, each year are taken erous large packing boxes and chest

The troud piarra overtooking Prench

This senses no added pleasure for secretary and Mrs. Lamont will be the presence of Mr. Whitney at Bar Harbor. When Mr. Whitney cheeks to go over to correcte, which is quite frequently, he as a rule, prefers, instead of making the trip in the regular little steamer plying hetween the Iwo reserts, to sail over in his own boat. Both Mr. Whitney and his two cons are good sufers and understand incompily the management of suitouts, and not infrequently enteriors their Bar Harber friends by taking them out for a said in Frenchman's Bay, with the rounda sail on Frenchman's Bay, with the round-ap of a function or dimer at Sorrento.

At one time Mr. Whitney had every in-tention of building a summer forme at Sor-testo, and had even gone to the extent of having the plans drawn for that purpose.

This was given up on account of the iff bealth of his wife at that time, and since her death Mr. Whitney has not taken sufficient interest in social doines to care to identify himself with any special resort. His greatest comfort seems to have been in traveling abroad and keeping as far

Mr. John Chemberlin has gone to New-

Mrs. Mristead will leave the city in a few days to spend the summer at Atlantic

Countess Esterlinzy will spend the sum-heir home in Georgetown and are spending gone to Fort Ethan Allen to join her brother, Capit, Frank Hardie. In the late autumn the Paymaster Lawrence Boggs, U. S. N., is in New York at the Hotel Brutswick.

Gen. Charles M. Shelley has gotte to New the recently arrived Americans in Paris.

Mr. Royal Pheips Carroll left Newport on Toesday for Educat City, Md., immediately upon receipt of a cablegram amouncing the sudden death in Scotland of his brother, Mr. John Lee Carroll, jr., son of ex-Governor

Carroll, who leso well known in Washington and Baltimore society.

The Carroll family had arranged for a gay the Carroutanily had arranged for a gay season at Newport, where Mr. Carroll's yacid Navahoe was to have been entered for the scason's races. The affliction into which the family is suddenly plunged on account of the death of Mr. John Lee Carroll, appointed second secretary of the French embassy has been for the past fifteen years in the French diplomatic service. He is at present thirty-eight years of age and will fill the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Black, who have been visiting Mr. W. Martin, left for their home in New Jersey yesterday morning accompanied by Miss Martin.

Miss Virgie Morris has gone to Frederick,

Mrs. Luke P. Blackburnbasgoneto Kittery

Point, Maine, to remain until late in September.

Miss Marie Bagaley left yesterday to spend several weeks at Laurel, Md.

Mrs. Wollard has returned to her desk

Miss Bertha Lay, of Takona Park, in-were served on the lawn and the young peoat the Treasury Department after a pleas-ant visit to Atlantic City.

removal of Mr. Taigny to Greece.

jr., will alter all of these plans.

Misses Hardie will return to this city

Inser Park.

the sommer at Leesburg.

comings with which to

8c. for 121/c. Lawns.

he Secretary of War went direct to her momer from on th econst of Maine, instead f accompanying Secretary Lamont to this Some lovely patterns .city, as was generally expected would be the case. She is now established at Sorrento All Washable Lawns, Guaranteed to keep with her family. Mrs. Lamont's plans for the present sumtheir Color. Even those

Lawns at 41 c. yd

Are guaranteed by us. Innumerable styles to pick from. Just think of a pattern and come in and see it among our 4 I-2c, Lawns.

Ends To-morrow Night.

Every Refrigerator And Ice Chest Is offered This Week below Actual cost And on Credit

It is the chance of your life to own a please or liver monthly no mides-

GROGAN'S

MANNOTH 819 | Seventh CREDIT 821 | Street HOUSE, 823 | N. W.

Between H and 1 Sts.

BROOKLAND ITEMS.

ther Mr Garrigan, vice-rector of the Catholic University, left yesterday morni-ling for Finitaburg, N. Y., where he will deliver a course of fectures to the Cath-sile Finite of Schools of Afterica, new in Seers. Herbert Morton and Aubsiden isway started yesterday morning for theorie on their breveles, and expect tench their destination in time ! termino session of the R. Y. P. U. Mr and Mrs. Guy Camp left last even Bracilland people are delighted with des Terry's new ice eteam pariors and home-made bakers. Ice cream, $1,50 per gallon; home-made cakes, 60 cents each. Robert R. and Mrs. West held a and residence of the Queenstown Charm. It was largely attended to members of the congregation and unuder of Washington and Brookland

The Riveskiand buseball team has made Galor to be played near bouker Hill road on July 27.

Mrs. William R. Brawner, of Washington, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. I. M. Woodward.

Dr. Frank Howe has returned to his in University Heights after a pleas-and trip to Boston, flev. Mr. Nux, of the order of St. Sulstanding the protests of the cit-imos of the electric cars shows no matic corps is always of course a matter of special interest in Washington and on situtement. Every evening a crowd of roughs block the streets, and their prominister or secretary of legation is accredited to this city all that can be learned of him is read and talked of with avidity. Mr. Francis J. Trubert, who has just been

Evening Rides on the River. To-day the steamer Charles Macalester leaves on her second Thursday evening trip for Marshall Hall and Indian Head large crowd that went down last Timesday proved that they are greatly the summer. Prof. Schroeder and his band adds to the pleasure of the trip by readering some delightful music. Persons taking the morning boats for Marshall Hall can take the evening boat at the Hall and couline on to Indian Head, thus getting the benefit of a morninght risk on the Persons. The ladies of Wash. ride on the Potomac. The ladies of Wash-ington are especially invited on these trips. The large Ferris wheel still at-tracts a great deal of attention and it is very seldon idle. The boat will leave her wharf this evening at 6:30 o'clock.

Conductor's Costly Brutality. on J. Lambert yesterday brought suit for damages in the sum of $10,000 Company. In his bill of particulars, filed yesterday afternoon, he stated that while standing on the platform of one of the company a cars on August 21, last, at Mountain Lake Park, Md., the conductor forcibly formst him from the platform and caused him to fad in from of an approaching train on a parallel track. He received injuries, he stated, from which be did not recover for ever two weeks.

Countess Esterbazy Will Summer at Deer Park-Whereabouts of month.

were the Misses Tucker, Slater and Sworm sted and Messes. Waters, Lay and others. Mrs. Isaac L. Bloot has gone to Oakland not Oklahoma as madvertently stated. Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Holtzman will leave this week for the senshore to remain o

ple enjoyed the hospitality of the young until a late hour. Among the guest

Mr. and Mrs. Prince are now located for the summer at the Albemarie, Atlantic City. Mrs. Hampden Zane is at Kittery Point,

Mr. and Mrs. J. Gans and their children, of Richmond, are here as guests of Mr. Isaac Gats, No. 726 Fifth street, where they will remain about ten days before going to the seashore for the balance of the fresence in this country, required him, in fact, to be in Washington from time to Mrs. William Davis and children, of East Washington, are enjoying their vacation at Wilkinson, Va.

Mrs. Harry Hopper is in the city visiting her mother in South Washington.

Mrs William Peters, of York, Pa., a former resident of South Washington, will visit her old home very shortly and will remain several weeks.

Mrs. Clinton James is in Baltimore attend-ing the Haptist convention.

Mrs. Annie Waiker will fenve Monday or a week's visit to Colonial Beach.

Miss Therese Mildred Sheer left for Pittsburg, Pa., yesterday mercang.

The Boston Herald states that among all the C. E. delegations from the various States and Territories, the contingent from Washington had the pretiest girls.

The throad planta overflooking Prench makes has alterna abandons opportunity for the giving of informal afternoon trans. On such excesses Mrs. Lamout not only serves the teg to her guests, but prepares it to been presented by means of a afth spirit lamp. On a small round takes during the squarer is aways to be round a damily set ten to be in the property to be round a damily set ten to be prepared at a moment's notice. For the most part Mrs. Lamouts guests arrive to the monday tent from for Harbar, and are not affrequently invited to remain over long amount to suppy has been with her. Mr. John A. Ellinger's Intends are the rather a good story at his expense. It happened that Mr. Ellinger delebrated has birthday one evening has wice Mr. peptr to an inquiry from his wife Mr. Ellinger into dilat the onir thing he is sellenger and of suspenders. When pur-Mr. John A. Ellinner's friends are tell-Ellimer and dilast the onir thing he mested was a pair of suspenders. When purchasing them Mrs. Ellimer happened to mention this fact at a certain depends house. The manager straight was told the fact to all of his friends. When the massis invited to spend the evening at Mr. Ellimer's began to arrive, each brought a pair of suspenders. Accounts differ as to the quantity, outr his friends may feel assured that he will never need a pair of suspenders again.

Miss Emily J. Bingham of the Elemere, who wanted to her home tear Rasion by the illusive mother has retorned, leav-ing her mother conval-secont.

guest of Miss Fiynn, of No. 211 Teath street. northeast.

Miss Dillon, of Syrmouse, N. Y., is the goest of the Misses Marphy, of Larrest northwest.

Senator Mitchell and family, of Wisconsm. are located at their collage at Brigantine, N. J. Their son is traveling in Europe, but is expected home before the gay season at Washington begins.

away as possible from the places with which memories of his wife were connected. His presence at Bar Harbor for the present sammer is in the inture of a surprise, a most welcome one to his friends, as the last time he was there it was with his wife, and at that time their lavish enter-laritaniesis led the gay summer colony Miss Cecelia V. Murphy, the soprano of St. Matthew's choir, leaves for a month's valuation in Boston. Upon her return she will be associated with her old musical position formerly held by her in the chair of that church and labely filled by Mrs. Ke ty Thompson-Berry, Miss. Murphy was for two years the soprano of St. Mat-

> Mr and Mrs Harmer-Recaide and Mr. and Mrs. So! Haas are contemplating forming a pleasure party for a two months mer, according to her usual custom, at Representative Harmer and Senator Mitchell, of Wiscotsin, are interested in the fishing resort, Brigantine, N. J., and Col. Nat Tyler and family are spending the emitter at Falls Church, where they have caused a country place for the senson. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hardie have closed are having attesing well-placed at intervals

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lewis sail for Europe Miss Katherine Hardie, who has recently terurned from the Presidio, Cal., has now gone to Fort Ethan Allen to jointer brother,

Miss Annie Ring, of the Cairo, has gone to Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Donn and daughter, Namona, have gone to Atlantic City for two weeks Mr. and Mrs. Franklin have gone to the

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Gren, of the Cairo, have gore to Adams, N. Y.

Miss E P. Wheaten has gone to Yellow Sulphur Springs, Va., for the summer. Miss Rucker has returned home after a visit to Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Henjamin F. Walker have gone to the rsummer home near Harrisburg, Mrs. G. B Phelps, of the Cairo, has gone to the Yellow Sulphur Springs for Mrs. and Miss Eland have returned from a trip to Long Island, N. Y.

Miss Hawkins, of the Cairo, will spend the summer with friends in Baltimore county, Md.

New Salvationist Coming. Adjutant Isabel Wood and Capt. Eva. Dunlop will have the assistance of Dr. Nice, of New York city, and Adjutant Hanter, of Baltimore, at the Salvation Army meetings at 930 Pennsylvania avenue Saturday and Sonday. Dr. Nice will doubtless be welcomed back by many of those who were delighted with his singing and victin playing on his former visit. ing and violin playing on his former visit. They will be glad to know that he is also to attend the meetings which the Salva-tion Army is to hold for the first time at Washington Grove camp the first five days in August. These meetings will be in charge of Brig. and Mrs. Evans, of New York, and will be attended by a number of officers, including Adjutant Wood and Special Train for Berkley Springs Saturday, Commencing Saturday, July 20, and con-Commencing Saturday, July 20, and continuing during the season, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company will place in service a special train with Pullman partor cars attached, leaving Camden station at 2:40 p. m., Washington at 3:45 p. m., arriving Berkley Springs 7:00 p. m. Returning, the special will leave Berkley Springs Monday moraing at 7:00 o'clock, arriving in Wash-9:55 a. m., and Baltimore 10:45 a. m. wine fartha Lay, of farcona Park, invited about forty of her young friends to alawn party on Wednesday evening. Hammacks were swung from the trees on the lawn and rocking chairs and settees were scattered everywhere. The lawn was well lighted with Chinese lanterns adding to the pretty effect. The pariors and dining room were cleared for dancing. Refreshments were served on the lawn and the young rec-

Spend Sunday in the Country. During the summer the B. & O. R. R. Company will sell excursion tickets at one fare for all trains, Saturdays and Sundays, to Charlestown, W. Va., Amapolis Junction. Md., and all intermediate points. Tickets good returning until Monday.

Mr. Joseph Bryan, proprietor and editor of the Richmond Times, is registered at the Metropolitan Hotel. Mr. Bryan is the same genial gentleman ha of yore, and he possesses the same inexhaustible fund of aumor and good sense as when he was a member of the newspaper correspondent orps in Washington. All of his energy and zeal is now being expended in making the Times one of the leading papers of the south.

ast evening, " but am just returning from jaunt to New York, in order to see my three boys off on their European trip. You have a fine paper here. Its success, according to my mind, is due as largely to is name as to the merit of the paper. Radimond Times was first started its under called it the Times because, as he aid, there never was a paper of that name which was not a success. Pardon me if I put the Richmond Times first in a list of notable Times, but others are the London Times, the New York Times, and the Washington Times, all of them grand and glorious papers. If you want a story just drop around to see Harvey Wilson, our Washington correspondent, and anything that he tells you. I will stand for."

"In a small town in Kentucky where I fre pently went on business," said Mr. Ned.
Archer, of Louisville, at the Ebbitt ouse, last night, "there lived a lawyer possessed of a goodly supply of worldly things and an enormous appetite for that liquid product for which my State is fa-

"He had occupied several positions of trust in his county, and when not on a space was a very intelligent and amiable man, but when drinking he was the reverse. At last a friend of his decided to make some extraordinary effort to break him of the half which was religing his health and the habit which was running his health and prospects. He laid his plans, and when the lawyer was next found dead drunk he had him conveyed to his home, and when there he placed him within an empty coffin in a darkened room and waited for him to Miss Laura Hully, of E street southwest, > Disappointment was in store for him. Indue time the lawyer awoke, and ina voice bucky and low, he said, 'Where am I at?'

> "'You are in Hades,' replied the friend in sepatchral tones. "You have been here sepulchral tones. 'You have been here or days.'
> "How long have you been here?' asked.

> "Well," and the voice was huskier than ever, 'I guess yaw know the place better than I do. Where can we get a drink?"

"I heard a good story in New York the other day on a well-known cartieman from my State," and Mr. Arther B. Travis, of Helena, Monta, at the National hist night. "His name for the precent will be Jones, as his real consoluen is to familiar to the eding public to admit of my telling a story on him.

"Jones shipped a large herd of steers East, accompanying them ameed, and after he had disposed of them profitably he preceded to New York to look over things. He is, as a fule, a pretty keen Westerner, and can take his place with the best of them pretty mach all the time, but when he starts in to shuffle the parteboards he loses his trail, ro to spack.

"As luck would have it, Jones, leaded down with besolle, and naturally lookin for accounting starring, struck a fate bank down with boodle, and gaturniy bookst be-comething stirring, struck a fare bank before he'd been in town two hours, and right there he began to shed his shokely. He stayed in the game till he went broke, and then he strolled forth. As he got outside he noticed that it was about closing time and the neighborhood was very dark.

"He hearn to feel longing without any the neighborhood was very dars.

"He began to feel lonesome without any money, so an idea strock him. He walked a short distance from the door and waited for the propertor of the gambling-house the property was that many gentlecome out. Pretty soon that shave gentle to come out. Firstly soon that snave gentle-man hove in sight, and as he got up to Jones the latter drew a long, mean look-ing knife from his bootleg, and said: 'Say, stranger, lend me $10. I want to go to the theater."

"The gammier looked at Jones and seeing that he was the cattleman who had dropped his dough, he ran his hand into hispocket, pulled out $20, and handed it to Jones, say-

There is a young lady living with her aronts not far from the Arlington, who as not a very high opinion of the veracity f the clerks of the botel. Some time ago n the famous Brooklyn divine, T. De present to the noted pulpit orator for his As Dr. Talmage came up from the breakfast table, Manager Frank Bennedt, had been told of the albam, and who i ways ready to oblige, explained what wanted and forthwith "With best wi wanter and forthwith "With best wishes for your furiure happiness. T. beWit Talmage, Washington, D. C.," was inscribed in the familiar hand on a page. The book was thrown upon the shelf, and the manager for once in his life forgot to remind his aides of what he had done.

In an hour or so Morgan Ross, seeing the preather strottine around the office.

the preaction strolling around the office, called him and the doctor again wrote. With best wishes, etc., on another leaf. Clerk Burney late in the afternoon suddeniv thought of the albam and while the others were basy with the books, secured in a few seconds, another signature and the stereotyped expression. So the day wore on and Clerk Johnny Breast, the hand somest of them all, ever willing to serve the fair sex, ended the affair by obtaining the desired autograph for the fourth time. The next day Miss M—— called for the The next day Miss M— called for the book and stopped to chat for a while, as most ladies do, with the good-looking, polite fellows who preside over the Arlington's register, and Mr. Bennett, who she met first, said in his most beaming smile that he had secured the autograph and was warmly thanked for his pains. Mr. Ross meandered up, and looking over the manager's shoulder stated to the astonishment of both Mr. Bennett and the young lady that he was glad to have been of service in that he was glad to have been of service in getting the signature.

Nothing was said but all wondered at the silence. Before long Burney stopped to say a word and, of course, he stated what he had done, and expected a word of praise. The atmosphere grew thick. Mr. Breast finally drew near, carefully dusting his hands to get rid of the speck of dirt that he thought might have come from the faultlessly clean ledger. He told a straight tale. This was too much and each stood looking at the other in speechless astonishment, while the young lady mentally called them pre-shows of trouble, she left them fight it out, while she stales weetly away To a man, each swore that he had gotten the signature and that his brethren were Bars. An open rupture did not take place but there was a sight coolness noticeable around the place for several days, unti-sweet-scented notes arrived from the girl. thanking each one for the signature which he had obtained, and with her woman's wit offering a solution of the trouble.

Then peace and prosperity was once more restored in the Arlington's happy family.

"The abscrity," said A. D. Parker, of Spokane, Wash, to a growd of commercial travelers at the Ruleigh last evening, "with which the heathen Chinese catches and adopts the tricks and sharp practices ## the goods sent him were, upon receipt, aways reported short and allowance had to be made for the missing articles. "This thing continued for some time until finally the amount which we had fost frough the reported alleged non-receipt of goods by Sam Gee was about $500. Then I grew tired. The stock-clerk who was to put up the next order, the shipping clerk and the draymen were given notice that if the next

Beat Our Prices

of them.

5 pieces 25c Plain Colored China Silk, per yd.....

pieces50c Black Figured Mohair, per few minutes the peddler passed me. Then I turned back and found a half pint bottle of mountain dew, but the quarter gone, and no one was the wiver as to where it came from. Before I left, however, the peddler Short length Plain Colored 13%: Duck, became frightened and ceased to make his price peryd ...

CRUISERS TO ASSEMBLE.

Admiral Bunce Will Begin His Cruise and Maneuvers August 3. The vessels of the North Atlantic station will assemble at Newport, R. I., not later than August 3, when it is expected that dozen All-linen % Napk ns. full bleached and extra quality. The regular price is $2.55 per doz. W. $1.17 place them on sale Friday at.... Admiral Bunce will begin his cruise and maneuvers.

All the vessels which have been assigned take out the naval militia, with the exeption of the Amphitrite, have been ered to return in time to reach New port by August 3.

order did not reach Sam all right they would be discharged. The goods were selected, packed and an itemized bill sent to the Chianman. In a few daysa curiously written letter from Gee was received, stating that about $50 worth of merchandise was missing. The three near were given a week's believe and the statement was all the second of the second series and the second series and the second series and the second series are set of the second series and the second series are series as the second series are series as a series and series are series as a series and series are series as a series and series are series as a series are series as a series and series are series as a series as a series are series as a series are series as a series as a series are series as a series as a series are series are series as a series are series as a series are se notice and the shortage allowed for in Ger's account.

"'Sam says he recevied the cases, did he not?' inquired the stock-clerk.

"'Yes,' I replied, giving him the letter to decipher, and also the bill.

"The lying rancal took the bill immediately upon receiving it from the mail, and without looking at the cases made nim for stortage, said he,

"How can you prove it?" I asked,
"His goods are in those three cases in the corner, and have never been sent out of the

"I have been enjoying a three weeks' va ourg, a healthy-looking gentleman of about five and forty was the speaker, at the Na tional yesterday. "While at a little place tional yesterday. "While at a little place between Pocohontas and Falls Mills I dis-covered a cute trick, by means of which moonshine could be obtained. On the quiet the tip was given me that for a dollar I could learn the ropes. The money was

I could learn the ropes. The money was forthwith handed over to a greasy, de-crepet individual, in the last stages of alcoolism. According to directions, I posted byself on the road about a mile from own, between 2 and 3 o'clock. Pretty soon there stambled up the hill oan who was bent beneath the weight a man who was bent beneath the weight of two large hampers which were at-tached to the ends of a stout stick stretched across his shoulders. As before directed, I deposited a quarter in the road and turning my back, walked off a piece. In a

The Atlanta has arrived at Key West and is in quarantine. It is now a question whether she can be got ready in time to participate in the naneuvers. She will have to remain in quarantine several days, her she will not be ready by the time the pindron sails. The Raleigh, also at Key West, is under The Raheigh, also at Key West, is under filters to proceed north at once, and will ske out a partien of the naval militia, he is expected to reach Boston in time o take the Massachusetts naval militia sea, but if she does not the Cincinnativiti be assigned to that dury. Admiral Bunce does not hic the idea of wing his flagship taken away for use the naval minita before the New York trives. The Cushing is under orders to use with the New York minita off aromer's Bay.

me wonder has been expressed that ing has been heard from the Colum-and the impression prevails that not extending the details at the departor of her serious injury, her experience dry dock has resulted in severe damage in dry dock has resulted in severe damage. Capt. Summer has been asked why he has not soiled, and a cable is expected annual capture.

It was stated at the department to-day that a mail report had been received from Capt. Summer saying that the damages as the result of the decking were even less than reported by telegraph. The anxiety about the Columbia is due to the fact that the department wants her to arrive in time to be docked or to undergo such other repairs as may be found necessuch other repairs as may be found necessary before she joins the squadron at Newport.

HER SERVICES REMEMBERD.

Mrs. Emma Poesche Presented With a Testimonial. The esteem and respect in which Mrs. Emma Poesche, ex-president of the Ladies' Society of the German Orphan Asylum, District of Columbia, by her former co-workers was evidenced vesterday by the presentation of a handsomely framed stimenial, expressing their high appreciation of her services.

dence, No. 1527 New Hampshire avenue, at 6 o'clock, in the presence of the officers and members of the society and a number of internate friends. The presentation speed! dent of the society, who briefly expressed the high appreciation of the society for her zealous and untiring work and its rets in losing so valuable an officer. In accepting the testimonial Mrs. Poesc. aid that in the future as in the past the although no executive officer of the ciety, she would always be anything which ciety, she would always be anything which would best advance its interests. The testimonial is a musterpiece of pen-manship and is the work of Mr. Rembold; Springeguth. It is in colors and is in-scribed: "The ladies' sewing society of the German Orphan Asylum of the Dis of Columbia, to the Hon, ex-Prest dent Mrs. Emma Poesche, as a friendly remembrance and expression of recogni-tion and gratitude for her long, untiring and faithful activity as the presiding offi cer of the society, and her zealous work and love and sympathy for the children whom fate had robbed of parents and

Attached are the signatures of the president, Mrs. Marie De Grain, Secretary Mrs. Bertha Caron, and the members of the executive committee, Mesdames Sarah nd, Emma Klochring and Elizabeth

Schroeder.
The testimonial, which is inscribed in German, is dated April 18, 1894, the date on which Mrs. Poesche retired from the presidency of the society.

IN A WORTHY CAUSE.

Subscriptions Solicited for Widow of the Unfortunate Cornice-Worker. The Times has been requested by the Eccentric Association of Steam Engineers to open a subscription list for Mrs. Lucy Phillips, widow of the cornice worker who lost his life by the fall of scaffolding on the rner of Twelfth and L streets northwest. a few weeks ago.

The Times effectfully acquiesces and officits liberal contributions for one who is left in distressfull destitute circum-

Licenses to marry have been issued as follows: James Phomas Bradshaw and Mary Frances Caivert. Eugene F. Smith and Lyda Allen, both of Luray, Va. James A. Sweeney, of Hazieton, Pa., James A. Sweeney, of Hazicton, Fa., and Fannie C. Stephenson Leroy W. Martin and Hanuah L. Simms, of Pairfax county, Va. Henry Redman and Rose Pitzhugh, both of Round Hill, Va. Daniel Brooks and Birdie Shepherd.

Marriage Licenses.

If you can-we think you will have a good deal of trouble-we have made such sweeping reductions. Here are some

Dry Goods.

Odd lengths 65c to $1 Taffeta Silk.

48c

30c lot 39c All Wool Challies, dark grounds, per yd ...

50

lot 18c Haircloth, in black, white and gray, per yd......

Linen Dept.

15 Remnants Turkey Red Tab e Dam-nak, in f and flo yd lengins. 396*496 fast color. Price, a remnant.

100 yards White India Lawn regular 10c grade. Price, per yd...... If Full Bleached Bed Spreads, extra size and quality. Price each....e

Corset and Cotton Underwear Dept

8173 Ladies Ferris Corset Waists, sizes 21, 22, 23 only. Price...... 45 pieces of 75c Ladies' Skirts, Cha-mise and Gowns, Price.

Infants' Dept.

Gingham Dresses, sizes 2 to 4. Price each 2 $3.50 Children's Short Coats, sizes 2 to 3 years. Price.

Millinery Dept.

A lot of Remnants of Ribbons, Worth from 15c up to 30c. Each...... Cloak and Suit

Dept.

$1.98 Ladies' Scotch Zephyr Waists.

4 81 70 Ladies' Wrappers, Watteau 2 Suits, in all-wool navy and bias's, transmed with braid ann silk front. Begular $5.50 suits. Sizes $2 and $3.50.

per cent off on all Bathing Suits.

Hosiery and Knit

mall lot of 25c Jersey Hibbed Vests, in colldren's only. Frice each.

11 $1 Ladies Vests, high neck and short sleeves. Sizes only 25, 17, 30. Price......

of pair of 15c Ladies' Hose, in boot 25c Infants' Black Hose, full length and regular made. Price per pr..

Glove and H'dk'f Dept.

21 pair of 89c 5-hook Tan Kid Gloves. Price, per pr..... 18 pair of $1 Elbow Slik Mitts, in fancy colors, for light dresses. Price, per pr.

nall lot of 5c Handkerchiefs. Price

Toilet Goods. 5c Tollet Paper. Price.....

Trunk Dept. is 56-inch Canvas-covered Trunk, sheet from bottom, good lock and side locks and deep set up tray, alignity damaged. Was $5. Now $3.40

128-inch Canvas-covered Trunk, sheet iron bottom, good lock and side locks, deep set up tray. Was $1.98 and adopts the tricks, and sharp practices of modern trade, is amazing. As you all know, I am at the head of a firm that deals extensively with the Mongolians on the Pacific coast. We used to ship several cases of merchandise each mouth to a fellow by the name of SamGee. Somehow or other both of Brookland.

Daniel Brooks and Firdle Snepherd.

John Brooks and Hirdle Snepherd.

West and several other children, aged several five years.

Kupert Brightwell and Marie E. Lunsden, both of Brookland.

Lives and Firdle Snepherd.

West and several other children, aged several five years.

Funeral several other children, aged several othe

EMRICH.

A Failure

please everyledly, but we de our best, and our enormous trade shows that we askiden fait.

We have a very excelling selected stock of grocaries, and we make a special point of harding the best shock of fresh vegetables, that we can possibly get.

Though we are very particular about the quelity we are by normous high-priord, in fact it would be very hard to find a store where you could ge lower prices than our a We have some very flux beauties of the course of the stock of the course of the stock of the stoc

EMRICH BEEF CO.

Main Market 1206-1101 2nd Street N W Telephone 267. Ernach Markets 1718 14th at my the and M ake may 2020 14th at my the and K sta may 202 1nd. Ave. my, 5th and 1 sta may 4th and 1 sta my 100 nd 1 and 1 a

OFFICE AND MAKE THE RESERVE OF THE PARTY OF You Need Not Dread

Hail Dental Parlors,

25 Cents Month Puts a Siemens Lungren Gas Lamp

-in your store or show window. Throws a light that is brighter than electricity and far more opinion and a far for a first the calling and the fam is necessarily a gless globe, is per month rental.

That Man

Office, 924 Pa. Ave. N. W.

GOODYEAR RUBBER CO. 807 Pa. Ave. N. W. MACKINTOSHES

GREAT REDUCTION

Stoves.

CIT Pennsylvania are: ne northwest.
First cleas service. Phone 12th 1yd-5mg IOC FRED J. SPINDLER & CO.,

9:40 a.m., at her residence, Benning, D. C., Margaret Jackson, widow of the late Nimrod Farr and mother of Mrs. M. E. Cook. Notice of funeral hereafter.

LIVERPOOL-On July 17, 1895, at 12:30

tives and friends respectfully invited. "ALAS!" SHE IS GONE. That mother's love, how sweet the name, What was that mother's love?

Within a heart of earthly mould, As much of Heaven as heart could hold, Nor through eternity grows cold, This was that mother's love.
BY HER CHILDREN

WEST-On Thursday, July 18, 1895, at 4.50 o'clock a. m., at the late residence of her daughter and son-in-law, John R. Scott, Bill Top, Chain Bridge Road, Georgetown, D. C., after a long and painful illness, Chloc And, beloved mother of William Henry West and several other children, aged seventy-five years.

Funeral services from the above residence, on Saturday, July 21, 1895, at 12 o'clock.

Gas Appliance Exchange, 1428 N. Y. Ave.

Great Falls Ice Company

For your going away. VERY LOW PRICES.

Ranges and

The E. F. Brooks Co.,

531 15th St. Corcoran Building

UNDERTAKERS. Underwear Dept J. WILLIAM LER ENBERTAKER undertakers and embaimers, N Seventh at, bw. Service prompt reasonable.

ESCHINGER-On Tunrsday, July 18, 1895, at 2 o'clock a. m., Pauline, beloved wife of Carl Eschinger, aged twenty-eight wars and six months.

LACY-At Benning, on July 18, 1895, at 4.45 a.m., Edith, the youngest daughter of W. H. and Bettle M. Lacy, in her seventh mouth. Interment at 3 p. m. Friday.

Friday, July 19, at 9 30 a m. Friends in vited to attend. Interment at Elchmond IOC Va. PAYNE-Annie M., beloved wife of Henry DIED.

Foneral from her late residence, No. 1201 12th street northeast, on Saturday, Joly 20, at 9 a m. Relative-and friends are te-pectfully invited to attend. Interment in Prospect Hill Cemetery.

FABR-On Thursday, July 18, 1895, at a. ni. Mrs. Josephine P. Liverpool, wife of W. H. Liverpool, of Hilbsfale, D. C. Foneral Friday, July 19, at 3 p. ni. from her late residence, Nichola avenue, near Douglass Hall. Relatives and friends in-

LYON-On July 17, 1895, at 2 15 a.m., at his residence, 328 A street northeast, G. A. Lyon. Funeral services at his late residence, Payne, entered into rest on Thursday, July 18, at 11 a m. Funeral will take place Saturday, from Oak Hill Chapel, at 10:30 a m. Rela-

The noblest, purest, tenderest flame, That kindles from above.